

My name is Federico and I present to you

I HATE TRAFFIC

It's a scrolling racing game where your main goal is to dodge enemy cars for as long as possible and increase your score .

You crash , you die once or twice , you lose

- The user can move on left and right to dodge the incoming cars.
- The user can collect powerups and bonuses(points,lives)
- The user can sound the car-horn , eventhough not much happens anyway
